Disaster Recovery for Senior Officials-DMP580

March 18, 2020
Westside Regional Library
5416 Provine Place, Alexandria, LA 71303

The Disaster Recovery for Senior Officials course provides an overview of disaster recovery and will provide senior leaders and executives with the information that will assist communities and businesses to prepare for and recover from disasters. The course will provide an overview of the key topics to understand recovery and be prepared for the next disaster.

Suggested Audience: This is a management-level course designed for city, parish, state, and tribal officials and front-line leaders who might be called upon to plan for, perform or support recovery operations during and after a disaster. It may also include both public and private community members that are likely to be involved in a disaster recovery.

Recommended participants include: School Superintendents, Financial Department heads, Parish Presidents/Officials, Sheriffs, Mayors, City Department heads, Law Enforcement Chiefs and Private Non-Profits - come learn why your Parish Emergency Directors are asking for that information.

DMP580 - Disaster Recovery for Senior Officials (4-hour: 8:30 am to 12:30 pm) class is delivered in conjunction with DMP480 - Introduction to Disaster Recovery Public Assistance Programs (12-hour/2day TBA) class offered for jurisdiction staff and management personnel on the FEMA Disaster Recovery Public Assistance process. This includes what FEMA needs, suggests, requires to get reimbursed following a Presidential Declared Disaster.
